

FROM HARVEST TO HOME

House Farm Workers! 10th Anniversary Summit

Friday, March 20, 2015 - 8:00 am - 1:30 pm

Ventura County Office of Education, 5100 Adolfo Road, Camarillo

Register Now! Purchase tickets online today!

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/from-harvest-to-home-summit-registration-15211339526>

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- People who value agriculture in Ventura County.
- People who believe that growing up in a safe and decent home matters.
- People who care about their communities.
- People who eat.

WHAT TO EXPECT?

- Learn how agriculture and its workforce have changed since the first Summit in 2004.
- Hear about opportunities from visionary and practical leaders.
- Share your ideas with others in your community.
- Craft goals and strategies to increase supply of decent and affordable farm worker homes.

Seating is limited and tickets must be purchased online in advance. Tickets are $20 each if purchased on or before March 10, and include continental breakfast and lunch. Beginning March 11, the price increases to $30.

FEATURED SPEAKERS

David J. Erickson, Director, Center for Community Development at the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco

Rob Weiner, Executive Director, California Coalition for Rural Housing

John Krist, Chief Executive Officer, Farm Bureau of Ventura County

Karen Flock, Real Estate Development Director, Cabrillo Economic Development Corporation

Yissel Barajas, Vice President of Human Resources, Reiter Affiliated Companies

Chris Stephens, Director, Ventura County Resource Management Agency

Thank You to our Visionary Sponsor

and Community Leader Sponsors

Learn more: www.housefarmworkers.org - Sponsor the event! Contact:

housefarmworkers@verizon.net