SUMMARY

A title brand is an official record of damage or other information about a vehicle that could affect its value or the ability to operate it safely. For example, a "rebuilt" title brand means the vehicle has suffered enough damage to be declared a total loss by an insurance company and then was rebuilt. A title brand remains on record for the life of the vehicle. This section gives you a summary view of the total number of "Brands" associated with this VIN since its first record of sale. If this section shows any hits, you can find the details including the branding type record, who entered the record, when it was entered and more in the section titled "BRAND HISTORY".

Total Loss:	No Brand Reported	Odometer:	No Brand Reported
Junk/Salvage:	No Brand Reported	Rebuilt/Repaired/Reconstructed:	No Brand Reported

TITLE HISTORY

This section shows you each State where the vehicle has been titled, when it was titled, the odometer reading on the date of title, etc. There is good information here to protect you from fraud. Keep an eye out for the odometer readings. If the current odometer reading is less than it was in one of these title records, you might suspect a fraud tactic called Odometer Rollback. You should also make sure the vehicle make and its model year match the "VEHICLE INFORMATION SECTION" above. If you find any discrepancies, take this report to your nearest department of motor vehicles for a detailed analysis by an expert.

NMVTIS CONSUMER ACCESS PRODUCT DISCLAIMER

- The National Motor Vehicle Title Information System (NMVTIS) is an electronic system that contains information on certain automobiles titled in the United States. NMVTIS is intended to serve as a reliable source of title and brand history for automobiles, but it does not contain detailed information regarding a vehicle's repair history.
- All states, insurance companies, and junk and salvage yards are required by federal law to regularly report information to NMVTIS. However, NMVTIS does not contain information on all motor vehicles in the United States because some states are not yet providing their vehicle data to the system. Currently, the data provided to NMVTIS by states is provided in a variety of time frames; while some states report and update NMVTIS data in "real-time" (as title transactions occur), other states send updates less frequently, such as once every 24 hours or within a period of days.
- Information on previous, significant vehicle damage may not be included in the system if the vehicle was never determined by an insurance company (or other appropriate entity) to be a "total loss" or branded by a state titling agency. Conversely, an insurance carrier may be required to report a "total loss" even if the vehicle's titling-state has not determined the vehicle to be "salvage" or "junk."
- A vehicle history report is NOT a substitute for an independent vehicle inspection. Before making a decision to purchase a vehicle, consumers are strongly encouraged to also obtain an independent vehicle inspection to ensure the vehicle does not have hidden damage. The Approved NMVTIS Data Providers (look for the NMVTIS logo) can include vehicle condition data from sources other than NMVTIS.
- NMVTIS data INCLUDES (as available by those entities required to report to the System):
 - Information from participating state motor vehicle titling agencies.
 - Information on automobiles, buses, trucks, motorcycles, recreational vehicles, motor homes, and tractors. NMVTIS may not currently include commercial vehicles if those vehicles are not included in a state's primary database for title records (in some states, those vehicles are managed by a separate state agency), although these records may be added at a later time.
 - Information on "brands" applied to vehicles provided by participating state motor vehicle titling agencies. Brand types and definitions vary by state, but may provide useful information about the condition or prior use of the vehicle.

- Most recent odometer reading in the state's title record.
- Information from insurance companies, and auto recyclers, including junk and salvage yards, that is required by law to be reported to the system, beginning March 31, 2009. This information will include if the vehicle was determined to be a "total loss" by an insurance carrier.
- Information from junk and salvage yards receiving a "cash for clunker" vehicle traded-in under the Consumer Assistance to Recycle and Save Act of 2009 (CARS) Program.
- Consumers are advised to visit www.vehiclehistory.gov for details on how to interpret the information in the system and understand the meaning of various labels applied to vehicles by the participating state motor vehicle titling agencies.
